Message from former Secretary of State Hillary Rodham Clinton to the Argentine-American Network for Leadership (REAL):

“Dear Members of the Argentine-American Network for Leadership,

I want to extend my warmest congratulations to you on the launch of your organization.

The membership of the Argentine-American Network for Leadership (REAL) reflects the number of significant leaders who have emerged from the International Visitors Leadership Program (IVLP). They have forged lasting relationships across all sectors in the United States and Argentina for more than 70 years. With two former presidents, former and current cabinet level ministers, and luminaries in the fields of journalism, government, education, law, economy, the environment, and civil society, the roster of IVLP alumni is indeed impressive.

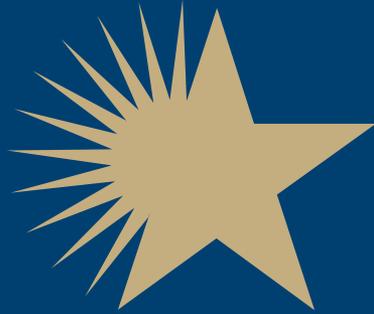

I believe the personal connections established through this network can contribute further to the broad cooperation and real friendship that has existed between the Argentine and American people for more than two centuries. I look forward to the continued relationship between REAL and the Department of State.

Sincerely yours,
Hillary Rodham Clinton
